SEMINARY CELEBRATES HISTORIC DOCUMENTS

Monday, October 22, beginning at 10:00 a.m., Main Lounge

PTS has scheduled a special celebration commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Barmen Declaration and the 30th anniversary of John A. Mackay's "Letter to Presbyterians."

The Barmen Declaration, written in 1934, was the answer of a heroic minority of German Protestants to being taken over in organization and in theology by Adolf Hitler's Third Reich and the Aryan myths of the "German Christian" movement. Written largely by theologian Karl Barth, it became the foundation of the illegal and underground "Confessing Church" in Germany which contributed to the leadership of post-war Christianity in Germany and around the world. The Barmen Declaration is today part of the Book of Confessions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Two decades later, in 1954, in the midst of the anti-communism of McCarthyism, "A Letter to Presbyterians" was written by John A. Mackay, then both president of the Seminary and moderator of the Presbyterian Church. A powerful letter concerning on the "potent assault on human rights" in the name of anti-communism, it received immediate national and world acclaim and was attacked by McCarthy proponents. The Letter was approved by the church's General Assembly in May 1954.

Princeton Theological Seminary, where both Barth and Mackay have been major twentieth century influences, is proud to remember and celebrate the common spirit of Barmen and the Letter to Presbyterians. Both documents reflect the articulation of the Christian faith in periods of social and political threat and danger. The opportunity to discuss these documents and probe their contemporary significance is especially timely in light of the heightened discussion of church-state relations.

The following is a listing of the day's agenda:

Monday morning: 10:00 a.m.
address on the Declaration of Barmen by Dr. Arthur C. Cochrane, professor of systematic theology, emeritus, University of Dubuque, and author of The Church's Confession Under Hitler.

11:00 a.m.
panel discussion led by Dr. Karlfried Froehlich, professor of ecclesiastical history, and Dr. Rolf Ahlers, professor of religion at Russell Sage College.

Monday afternoon
12:00 noon chapel service
12:30 p.m. luncheon
1:30 p.m. address on "A Letter to Presbyterians" by Dr. Edward Dowey, professor of the history of Christian doctrine
2:30 p.m. panel discussion

ANNUAL PASCHAL VIGIL

The Paschal Vigil is a unique worship experience that happens on the Seminary campus on the Saturday evening before Easter. The vigil is modeled after the celebrations of Easter that occurred in the early church. It takes a tremendous amount of creativity, energy, and enthusiasm to pull it together. While it's difficult to start planning Easter before Christmas, it needs to happen. If you are interested in learning more about the vigil and/or being part of the Paschal Vigil Steering Committee for 1985, please contact Judy Hartung, 315 Hodge Hall, 683-4311, or Gordon Mapes, 414 Alexander Hall, 924-0512.

If you are willing to be part of that list, please give your name and phone number to your hall deacon or contact Judy Hartung at 315 Hodge Hall, 683-4311.

VESPERS AND DISCUSSIONS

Sunday, November 4, 6:00 p.m. Trinity Episcopal Church
Sunday, November 11, 6:30 p.m.
Sunday, November 18, 6:00 p.m.
Each evening there will be a vesper service, sung by the choir of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary in Crestwood, New York, and a series of discussions, led by St. Vladimir's faculty members. Father Paul Lazor, lecturer in liturgics and pastoral theology, and Professor David Drillock, associate professor of liturgical music, will lead the first discussion on "The Spirit of Orthodox Worship." Father Thomas Hopko, associate professor of dogmatic theology, will lead the second discussion on "The Practice of Personal Prayer." Concluding will be Father John Breck, lecturer in ethics, on the topic of "The Language of Icons."

(St. Vladimir's continued...)

The writings of Thomas Merton warn against the misconception of the Orthodox Church as a sort of "gold-encrusted cult thick with the smoke of incense and populated with a legion of gleaming icons in the sacred gloom..." It is the purpose of this dialogue and the presentation of vespers to show what lies behind the smoke and the gold and the gloom which fascinates so many, often distracting from the simplicity and robustness of Orthodox Christianity.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Princeton Area Chapter of the American Red Cross is seeking three or four student volunteers from the Seminary who are willing to spend four to six hours a week at the Princeton Red Cross headquarters on Harrison Street, telephoning and scheduling blood donors. All donors to be contacted have been pre-registered and expect to be telephoned regularly. Students will not be soliciting blood donors who have not previously joined the program.

As the need for blood donations, particularly for special blood types, increases, so does the need for volunteer service. Additional specific information on telephone recruiting for blood donations is available in the Housing Office.

If any student wishes to donate time to this important service, please contact Martha Nielsen at the Princeton Chapter of the Red Cross, 924-2404. Your willingness to help others in this way is greatly appreciated.

"AGNES OF GOD" PRESENTED TO BENEFIT WORLD HUNGER

Friday, January 18; Saturday, January 19; Friday, January 25; & Saturday, January 26, Princeton Day School, 8:00 p.m.
A professional Equity production of "Agnes of God," by John Peilmeier, will be performed at the Princeton Day School, The Great Road, Princeton.
